Where Generations Have Met Since 1896

Let us spoil you with our legendary service and experience the most magical atmosphere in the heart of St. Moritz. Pure joie de vivre reigns – here is where culinary delights exceed all expectations. Indulge in a whirlwind of style, sport, haute cuisone and wellness, explore the Swiss winter world at a height of 1830 meters or discover the sun-soaked Engadin in summer.

SOMETHING SPECIAL FOR THE BODY...

The Golden Age of stylish travel never lost its sparkle at Badrutt's Palace Hotel and always remains up to date. In our wood-panelled Le Grand Hall piano music accompanies traditional afternoon tea creations and delectable creations by our world class pâtisserie indulge the eye and the palate.
For enchanting evenings in a unique atmosphere, Le Restaurant offers a timeless ambience with international and French cuisine, while the former first tennis hall in Europe, La Coupole-Matsuhisa (16 Gault Millau points), presents Japanese-Peruvian delicacies by star chef Nobuyuki Matsuhisa ("No-bu"). Renaissance Bar offers the perfect spot to withdraw for a fine cigar or to indulge in an after-dinner drink.
Guests who prefer urban dining and exuberant dancing should block out several evenings in the calendar for King's Social House by Jason Atherton – an exciting Dining & Dancing concept that launched in December 2018 and where international DJs such as Joe T Vannelli, Tom Novy and Kenny Carpenter (who has already done a set in the legendary Studio 54 in New York) will get the party started within its newly clad walls by street artists Bane & Pest!

A short walk across the street and up a few steps leads you to the centre of the village and 364-year-old Chesa Veglia (15 Gault Millau points). Today, the former farmhouse, with regional Swiss flair, houses one bar and three restaurants for lovers of authentic Italian pizza, elegant French cuisine and rustic Swiss specialities.
Or experience our legendary service at the Paradiso Mountain Club & Restaurant (13 Gault Millau points) on the Corviglia mountain. Our team will spoil you on the sun terrace with delicious snacks, traditional Alpine classics and culinary favourites from around the world. Indulge in decadent cocktails, hot drinks and champagne in large bottles – and in winter our in-house DJs get people dancing every day.

Last but not least:
Many of our events are already legendary, but the queen of all parties is and always will be New Year's Eve at Badrutt's Palace Hotel. With themed decorations worth almost one million Swiss Francs and fabulous costume parties, the old year is never in a hurry to move on–have lots of fun celebrating!

... AND SOUL

High in the mountains, wellbeing is alive at Palace Wellness, where luxurious pampering moments are lined up like a string of precious pearls. Discover the indoor infinity pool with its grandiose backdrop or go with the flow in the heated outdoor pool. The spacious fitness area offers hydrotherapy treatments as well as aroma and salt steam saunas, the only hardship being which relaxing massage to choose from the long list. Ayurvedic therapy, yoga lessons, facials and a barber service complete your personal à la carte wellness menu. To fulfil the wise saying Mens sana in corpore sano, healthy restaurant La Diala, in the heart of Palace Wellness, serves smart balanced dishes that perfectly complement a relaxing spa day.

IF WALLS COULD TALK...

...they could fill hours and hours with dates, stories and anecdotes. Here are the main ones in brief:

1892 Caspar Badrutt (1848–1904) has Hotel Beau Rivage renovated by Swiss architects Chiodera und Tschudi to become Palace Hotel.

1896 Official opening of Palace Hotel on 29 July.

1898 Caspar's son Hans Badrutt (1876–1953) takes over managing the hotel.

1935–36 Chesa Veglia is bought and converted into a rustic restaurant.

1953 After the passing away of Hans Badrutt, his wife Helen and son Andrea take over managing the hotel.

1960 Helen Badrutt dies and the sons Andrea (1910–1998) and Hansjürg Badrutt (1930–2016) continue the Palace Hotel.

1963 King's Social House first opened its doors in 1963.

1967 The Place Tower, a legendary symbol of the hotel, is destroyed by a fire. One year later it is rebuilt.

1969–70 Expansion of the hotel with a spa complex.

1981–84 The Suot Mulin complex is built housing rental apartments and suites.

1999–03 Hansjürg Badrutt and his wife Anikó retain luxury hotel chain Rosewood Hotels & Resorts, USA, to manage Badrutt's Palace Hotel.

April 2003 Badrutt's Palace Hotel is successfully managed again as a private hotel.

2002 Opening of the luxury shopping mile Serletta, so-called Palace Galerie, over 2000 m^2 directly opposite Badrutt's Palace Hotel.

2004 Swiss hotel manager Hans Wiedemann becomes Managing Director of Badrutt's Palace Hotel.

2006–07 Up to 80 % of the hotel is heated through an innovative pump using water from Lake St. Moritz.

2008–10 Palace Wellness is completely redesigned for over 70 million Swiss Franc.

2014–15 Japanese star chef Nobuyuki Matsuhisa ("Nobu") brings his premium brand to La Coupole-Matsuhisa.

2016 3-Michelin-starred Swiss chef Andreas Caminada brings his fine-dining-sharing concept to St. Moritz with IGNIV by Andreas Caminada.

2018 Swiss hotelier Richard Leuenberger becomes Managing Director of Badrutt's Palace Hotel.

2018 Relaunch of King's Social House for the winter season 2018/19 with a new Dining & Dancing concept together with British star chef Jason Atherton, street artists Bane & Pest and international DJs such as Joe T Vannelli, Tom Novy or the Studio 54 legend Kenny Carpenter.

2019 Badrutt's Palace Hotel becomes the first hotel in Europe to introduce 5G technology.

2020 Marcel Skibba receives second Michelin star for IGNIV by Andreas Caminada at Badrutt's Palace Hotel.

2020 Second phase of renovations on the 2nd, 3rd and 4th floors are completed in time for the winter season.

2021 Launch of restaurant and mountain club Paradiso St. Moritz on Corviglia for winter season 2021/2022.

2022 Renovations on the 2nd and 5th floors, as well as for the staff restaurant Bella Vista, are completed by the winter season 2022/2023.

2022 Start of hotel expansion with 3 residenses & 22 suites by Italian star architect Antonio Citterio.

2023–24 Pop-up restaurant Jordnaer from Copenhagen.

2024 Opening of the new outdoor pool.

2024 Chef Daniel Rose gives a pop-up guest performance.

2025 Opening of the new Serlas Wing, designed by Italian architect Antonio Citterio.

2025 Chef Santiago Lastra from The World's 50 Best Restaurants KOL impresses with a pop-up.

2026 CHF 30 million in further investments, including 24 renovated, air-conditioned rooms and suites by Champalimaud Design, Matsuhisa redesigned by Martin Brudnizki Design Studio, and the new Embassy Bar by Giuseppe Porcelli. Launch of the wellness collaboration with Joanna Vargas.
