Where Generations Have Met Since 1896

Let us spoil you with our legendary service and experience the most magical atmosphere in the heart of St. Moritz.

Pure joie de vivre reigns – here is where culinary delights exceed all expectations. Indulge in a whirlwind of style, sport, haute cuisine and wellness, explore the Swiss winter world at a height of 1830 meters or discover the sun-soaked Engadin in summer.

SOMETHING SPECIAL FOR THE BODY...

The Golden Age of stylish travel never lost its sparkle at Badrutt's Palace Hotel and always remains up to date.

In our wood-panelled Le Grand Hall piano music accompanies traditional afternoon tea creations and delectable creations by our world class pâtisserie indulge the eye and the palate.

For enchanting evenings in a unique atmosphere, Le Restaurant offers a timeless ambience with international and French cuisine, while the former first tennis hall in Europe, La Coupole-Matsuhisa (16 Gault Millau points), presents Japanese-Peruvian delicacies by star chef Nobuyuki Matsuhisa ("No-bu"). Renaissance Bar offers the perfect spot to withdraw for a fine cigar or to indulge in an after-dinner drink.

Guests who prefer urban dining and exuberant dancing should block out several evenings in the calendar for King's Social House by Jason Atherton – an exciting Dining & Dancing concept that launched in December 2018 and where international DJs such as Joe T Vannelli, Tom Novy and Kenny Carpenter (who has already done a set in the legendary Studio 54 in New York) will get the party started within its newly clad walls by street artists Bane & Pest!

A short walk across the street and up a few steps leads you to the centre of the village and 364-year-old Chesa Veglia (15 Gault Millau points). Today, the former farmhouse, with regional Swiss flair, houses one bar and three restaurants for lovers of authentic Italian pizza, elegant French cuisine and rustic Swiss specialities.

Or experience our legendary service at the Paradiso Mountain Club & Restaurant (13 Gault Millau points) on the Corviglia mountain. Our team will spoil you on the sun terrace with delicious snacks, traditional Alpine classics and culinary favourites from around the world. Indulge in decadent cocktails, hot drinks and champagne in large bottles – and in winter our in-house DJs get people dancing every day.

Last but not least:

Many of our events are already legendary, but the queen of all parties is and always will be New Year's Eve at Badrutt's Palace Hotel. With themed decorations worth almost one million Swiss Francs and fabulous costume parties, the old year is never in a hurry to move on – have lots of fun celebrating!

... AND SOUL

High in the mountains, wellbeing is alive at Palace Wellness, where luxurious pampering moments are lined up like a string of precious pearls. Discover the indoor infinity pool with its grandiose backdrop or go with the flow in the heated outdoor pool. The spacious fitness area offers hydrotherapy treatments as well as aroma and salt steam saunas, the only hardship being which relaxing massage to choose from the long list. Ayurvedic therapy, yoga lessons, facials and a barber service complete your personal à la carte wellness menu.

To fulfil the wise saying Mens sana in corpore sano, healthy restaurant La Diala, in the heart of Palace Wellness, serves smart balanced dishes that perfectly compliment a relaxing spa day.

IF WALLS COULD TALK...

...they could fill hours and hours with dates, stories and anecdotes.
