ST. MORITZ SWITZERLAND

#BADRUTT's MOMENTS: “ ... and sold! “

St. Moritz, 23 December 2018. 16 christmas trees, extravagantly decorated, and 16 exclusive gifts of international luxury brands has been auctioned off to the highest bidder at yesterday's 20th edition of our annual Christmas Tree Auction. A total of CHF 101'250 was raised to be donated to four Engadine charity organisations.

Uniqueness comes at a price. And that's a good thing, especially when raising money for a good cause is involved. Our 170 guests who witnessed or participated in yesterday's cheerful bidding war over wonderfully ornate fir trees and Christmas sculptures at Le Restaurant, apparently agreed on this, as they raised CHF 101'250 for charity organisations in the Engadine.

The anniversary edition of our Christmas Tree Auction has been accompanied by a Gala Dinner of Executive Chef Dirk Haltenhof and his team. „A wonderful evening with a wonderful outcome“, says Managing Director Richard Leuenberger, delighted with the proceeds that will go to the St Moritz School for the Blind, the KiBE organisation (Assistance for Children in the Upper Engadin), the Avegnir association (Friends of cancer and long term patients) and the Ufficina association (Assisted living for people with mental and physical disabilities). «If we can support and even help expanding the offer of non-profit organisations in our region, we have achieved our goal», he adds.
