

Badrutt's Palace Hotel honoured with 5 stars by Forbes Travel Guide for the second year

St. Moritz, 16th September 2020 – Badrutt's Palace is very happy to be awarded 5 stars by Forbes Travel Guide again. The famous hotel in St. Moritz was already honoured in February 2020 with the prestigious star rating. Forbes Travel Guide has just announced the first winners of 2021 and has awarded Badrutt's Palace Hotel the highest number of stars for the second time. The renewed award proves the exceptional reputation of the Swiss Hotel as one of the best in Europe.

Forbes Travel Guide's star rating accounts for one of the most prestigious achievements in gastronomy. With its unique independent global rating system for luxury hotels, restaurants and spas, the institution has advocated an excellent service for over 60 years. In order to provide travel inspiration for post quarantine times, the global rating experts have provided a sneak peak of the next year's winners and have extended the 2020 list of prize winners announced in February this year. The early 2021 winners were inspected prior to the COVID-19 closures.

Richard Leuenberger, Managing Director of Badrutt's Palace Hotels says: "It is an especially great honour for us to be awarded with 5 stars by Forbes Travel Guides. It once again underlines the hotel's excellent reputation, the high standards we maintain, but above all, the excellent service we offer our guests. At this point I want to pay a very special tribute to the whole team at Badrutt's Palace who have made this award possible."

"It is a great pleasure for us to recognise these splendid hotels with our 2021 awards," says Filip Boyen, CEO of Forbes Travel Guide. "We hope these excellent hotels will prompt travellers to start dreaming about their next trip and build anticipation for the 2021 awards."
