WHERE GENERATIONS HAVE MET SINCE 1896

Let us spoil you with our legendary service and experience the most magical atmosphere with us in the heart of St. Moritz. Pure joie de vivre reigns here – and here is where culinary delights exceed all expectations. Indulge in a whirlwind of style, sport, haute cuisine and wellness, explore the Swiss winter world at a height of 1830 m or discover the sun soaked Engadin in summer.

SOMETHING SPECIAL FOR THE BODY...

The Golden Age of stylish travel never lost its sparkle in Badrutt's Palace Hotel and always remains right up to date here. In our wood-panelled Le Grand Hall piano music accompanies traditional afternoon tea where delectable creations by our world class pâtisserie indulge the eye and the palate. In the 3-star-chef Andreas Caminada's IGNIV (2 Michelin stars & 17 Gault Millau points) our hotel's inspirational talent is shown at its best: an innovative fine-dining concept harmoniously blends with its historic surroundings. Not only is exquisite cuisine celebrated here but also the shared experience and enjoyment of refined menu compositions. For enchanting evenings in a unique atmosphere, Le Restaurant (15 Gault Millau points) offers timeless ambience with international and French cuisine, while in the former first tennis hall in Europe, La Coupole/Matsuhisa (16 Gault Millau points) presents Japanese-Peruvian delicacies by star chef Nobuyuki Matsuhisa («Nobu»). Renaissance Bar offers the perfect spot to withdraw for a fine cigar or to indulge in an after-dinner drink. Whereas, guests who prefer urban dining and exuberant dancing should block out several evenings in the calendar right now for King's Social House by Jason Atherton – an exciting Dining & Dancing concept that launched in December 2018 and where international DJs such as Joe T Vannelli, Tom Novy and Kenny Carpenter (who has already done a set in the legendary Studio 54 in New York) will get the party started within its newly clad walls by street artists Bane & Pest! A short walk over the street and up a few steps leads you to the centre of the village and 364-year-old Chesa Veglia (15 Gault Millau points). The former farm house with regional Swiss flair houses today two bars and three restaurants for lovers of authentic Italian pizza, elegant French cuisine and rustic Swiss specialities. Or Experience the legendary Badrutt's Palace Service on Corviglia Mountain, from delicious snacks to traditional alpine classics (with a twist) to culinary favorites from around the world, from decadent cocktails to hot drinks to champagne in large bottles - the Paradiso Mountain Club & Restaurant, always sets the bar high. In winter, our in-house DJs get people dancing every day. Last but not least: Many of our events are already legendary, but the queen of all parties is and always will be New Year's Eve at Badrutt's Palace Hotel. With themed decorations worth almost one million Swiss Francs and fabulous costume parties, the old year is never in a hurry to move on, having lots of fun celebrating!

... AND SOUL

High in the mountains, wellbeing lies naturally in the air and at Palace Wellness luxurious pampering moments are lined up like a string of precious pearls. Discover the indoor infinity pool with its grandiose backdrop or go with the flow – out into the heated outdoor pool. The spacious fitness area offers hydrotherapy treatments as well as aroma and salt steam saunas, the only hardship being which relaxing massage to choose from the long list. Ayurvedic therapy, yoga lessons, facials and a barber service complete your personal à la carte wellness menu. In order to fulfil the wise saying that Mens sana in corpore sano, healthy restaurant La Diala in the heart of Palace Wellness serves smart balanced dishes to perfectly compliment a relaxed spa day.
